Death List in Chile Earthquake Placed at 230

Buildings Not Already Razed Are Being Demolished—Red Cross Offers Aid Accepted—Hospital at Talca Burned, Tent Hospitals Established.

Santiago, Chile, Dec. 3 (AP).—President Ibanez today was on the scene directing relief measures for the survivors of an earthquake which devastated a large area 150 miles to the south of Santiago.

A casualty list compiled from various unofficial sources placed the deaths at 230 and the injured at more than 400.

Martial law was proclaimed in Talca, an industrial city of 35,000 population, which apparently bore the brunt of the quake. Official advisers from there said that only ten per cent of the houses were habitable.

Buildings not already razed by the quake were being demolished to avert further danger from a sudden collapse. The deaths at Talca were estimated at 108, with 309 injured. Relief trains were speeding into the stricken area. Regular railway schedules were cancelled so as to give them the right of way.

President Ibanez, who was in South Chile, hurried to Talca as soon as he learned of the catastrophe. He found that relief work had been set in motion by Minister of War Blanche, who flew to Talca by airplane from the capital. Firemen and various organizations of young men aided the mounted police in caring for sufferers and acting as guards. Aid offered by the Red Cross also was accepted.

Soldiers were ordered to shoot on sight any marauders. Troops were placed over most of the food supply to prevent looting and they were rationing them.

Damage Estimated at $12,000,000. Refugees arriving from Talca estimated that the damage there would amount to 100,000,000 pesos (about $12,000,000). The hospital there was burned after the earthquake and more than 200 persons had to be cared for in emergency shelters.

Tent hospitals were established throughout the stricken region by the Red Cross when suitable buildings were not available.

The naval commander at Port Constitución reported that 54 persons were dead there and about 100 injured. Three cruisers were sent to the port by the government. They reported the damage there was widespread. Inhabitants were sleeping in tents in the public squares of Constitución and in a dozen other cities and villages.

The unofficial casualty list for other places was: Chillan, 30 dead, 30 injured; Temuco, 17 dead, "numerous other deaths and injuries"; Panguel, five dead, four injured; Santa Cruz, 30 dead; Concepcion, 2 injured; Rancagua, 1 dead; Curico, 2 dead, 4 injured, and San Vicente, four injured.

The whole vicinity presented a desolate aspect. Roads were blocked by fallen trees and wires.

Cases Heard At Special Term

A regular term of Supreme court was held at the court house Saturday with Judge Nichols presiding. Several orders were signed and testimony was taken in one action for dissolution of marriage.

Herman Fisher of this city applied to the court for an annulment of his marriage to Esther Fisher. She left in 1913 from their home in Brooklyn and has not been heard from since. At that time she was presumed to have gone to California.

Case closed. A. H. Van Buren for petitioner. An order directing withdrawal of money out of the county treasury was signed in the matter of the application of J. Edward Simmons, et al., constituting the board of water supply of the city of New York, to recover real estate, et al., Ashokan Reservoir, Section No. 2, Ulster County, Parcel No. 46.

Motion for bill of particulars was granted in the matter of Bartley J. Gorman against David Probststein. William Butler for William Kaecher for defendant; William D. Brannier for plaintiff.

An order appointing George Deming as receiver directing a bond in $1,000 was signed in the matter of Joseph Rosenberg and Abraham Finkelstein against Antonio Mischell, et al., a Columbia county action. John J. Moy for plaintiff.

In the matter of William Becker vs. William and Ethel Humphrey, an action to foreclose a mortgage, testimony was taken. Hon. George F. Kaufman will be appointed referee. F. W. Brooks for plaintiff and Grant M. Brannier for defendant.

A motion to dismiss for failure to serve a complaint was granted in the case of Harry T. Curtis against Alfrons L. Baugarten A. W. Andries for plaintiff by F. M. Garfield. Court adjourned to chambers at Cobleskill.

Several Cases In Police Court

This morning in police court the trial of Raymond Post of this city, charged with reckless driving in crashing into one of the city's fire trucks while it was responding to an alarm of fire, was adjourned to December 10. The bail bond of $200 was continued until that time.

There are also several other charges lodged against Post. In the absence of Judge Augustus Shuffelt, Judge A. H. Van Buren presided.

Leander Hannibal, a negro, arrested on a warrant sworn out by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Hughes of 101 Gage street, charging Leander with failure to provide for the support of his two small children which are in her care, had his hearing adjourned to December 10. Mrs. Hannibal is a patient at the T. B. Hospital.

Max Birnbauer and Morris Shapiro, both of 108 North Front street, were arrested today on a warrant sworn out by Harry Hecht of 108 North Front street, charging them with assault in the third degree. The hearings were adjourned to December 10.

Charles Starrel, who is working at Tivoli, came to Kingston Saturday and got drunk. This morning he was fined $5 in police court.

Improvement in General Condition Of King George

London, Dec. 3 (AP).—King George's physicians issued this bulletin at 10:30 a. m. on his condition:

"The King has had three hours of quiet sleep since the issuing of the last bulletin. The temperature is now 99.5 and there is a slight improvement in the general condition."

The King's physicians, Sir Stanley Hewitt and Lord Dawson of Penn, arrived at the Palace at 10 a. m., about three-quarters of an hour later than usual.

There was intense interest in the result of their morning visit and the issuance of their bulletins was anxiously awaited.

A rain had fallen at intervals during the night, and this settled to a steady drizzle by the time the physicians made their appearance. This did not prevent a crowd from beginning to gather early while many people on their way to shops and offices, joined occupants of automobiles and taxicabs in stopping to read the late night bulletin which told of the anxiety concerning the strength of the King's heart.

By the time the medical bulletin was posted, the crowd outside Buckingham Palace had swollen to big proportions. There was a rush forward to read the report, which chronicled a lowering of the king's temperature, and slight improvement in his general condition.

As the crowd read the bulletin, there were sighs of relief as it seemed to the king's anxious subjects that new hope was given and what they feared most—the growing worse of his condition—was not chronicled. Many of those who had waited for hours in the rain walked off with tense expressions erased from their faces and their hearts apparently at least temporarily lightened.

It was gathered at the Palace after the morning bulletin had been issued that there was small probability that there would be any further official word until the usual hour of the night.

BAPTIST PASTOR SINGS SONGS IN PULPIT

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Dec. 3 (AP).—Singing the refrain of the jazz songs to emphasize his statement, Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Syracuse, last night told his audience that modern jazz is doing more to counteract what he described as the evil tendencies of the age than either the pulpit or the press. Dr. Clausen said that the good effects of modern songs were of greater value than the older religious method of simply saying "thou shalt not." The minister selected the choruses of three popular songs of last year for his illustrations.

Pioneer of the Covered Wagon Era Dies at 97

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 3 (AP).—Ezra Meeker, 97, one of the last of the survivors of the pioneers of the covered wagon era, died here this morning after an illness of several months.

Meeker clung tenaciously to life until the end, holding on by sheer will power after physicians and relatives had given him up. He had been at the point of death in a Detroit hospital for two months before returning here eight weeks ago. He had grown gradually weaker and when his condition became alarming it was impossible to move him to a hospital.

Last Thursday the pioneer was reported to have shown great improvement and hopes were held momentarily by his doctors that he would recover and live to reach his 98th birthday this month. He was in fine spirits over the week-end and his pulse and temperature were about normal. Late yesterday there was a turn for the worse and he sank rapidly.

Herbert Hoover Enroute to Peru

President of Ecuador Discusses Home Affairs With Him, Pointing Out How United States May Be of Assistance.

U. S. S. Maryland, en route to Callao, Peru, December 3 (AP).—Herbert Hoover today left Ecuador for Peru. He plans to land Wednesday at Callao.

The president-elect was accompanied on the seventy-mile ride to the cruiser Cleveland from Guayaquil by President Ayora, who through newspapermen sent greetings to the American people. He said he was pleased because of Mr. Hoover's visit, declaring it would create better feeling and improve relations between the United States and South America.

After reviewing financial, sanitary and other reforms which he said his government had accomplished, Ayora asserted that Ecuador maintained friendly relations with all countries. "There are some boundary disputes," he said. "My government favors early and final settlement of these on the basis of justice and equality and wants to deal with them through direct negotiations with the governments concerned."

The principal boundary dispute is with Peru and there is also one pending with Colombia.

Discusses Problems With Hoover. Ayora, who traveled to Guayaquil to formally welcome Hoover yesterday, talked with the president-elect on the Cleveland for more than two hours, discussing financial and economic affairs of Ecuador and the manner in which the United States might assist the Republic.

Ayora seemed proud of the fact that Ecuador's finances had been restored to a gold basis, with a central bank system fashioned somewhat along the lines of the United States federal reserve bank. There is also a farm bank in Ecuador. Ayora said his government had established a board of social welfare to improve conditions of labor and to enact laws for the welfare of women and children.

Hoover Especially Interested. Hoover was especially interested in the operation of these laws as they dealt with subjects on which he put emphasis in his campaign for the presidency.

Besides Ayora, Hoover was accompanied by the Maryland by Foreign Minister La Fronte, Finance Minister Tejada and the American Minister, Gerhard A. Bading.

Mr. Hoover was informed that the Maryland would be accompanied by Callao by the flagship of the Peruvian navy. From Callao the president-elect plans to go to Lima by motor.

It is probable that Hoover will call at Antofagasta, Chile, instead of Mollendo, Peru, to receive Bolivian officials. Under arrangements now pending the call at Antofagasta would be made Saturday.

Colorado River Dam Estimated At $165,000,000

Congressional Commission Recommends Its Construction—Feasible to Build Dam That Will Safely Impound Water to 350 Foot Elevation—Will Be of Gravity Type.

Washington, Dec. 3 (AP).—The congressional commission of engineers and geologists appointed to investigate the feasibility of the Colorado river project has recommended that the dam be built at Black Canyon and estimates the cost at $165,000,000.

In its report, submitted to Congress today by Secretary West, the commission declared to be "basic" the engineering feasibility of the dam across the main stream of the Colorado river at Black Canyon or Boulder Canyon.

If no other site were available, the commission reported, the "Boulder Canyon site could safely be used so far as geological conditions are concerned." "In comparison with the Black Canyon site, however," it said, "the latter has certain advantages."

In its cost estimate the report ranges from 25 to 50 million dollars more than any previous estimate. It recommended that the main canal to be constructed in connection with the project be entirely within the United States.

The board is of the opinion that it is feasible from an engineering standpoint to build a dam across the river at Black Canyon that will safely impound water to an elevation of 550 feet above low water.

The dam would be by far the highest yet constructed and would impound 26,000,000 acre feet of water. The board reported that the growing demand for power in Southern California, when considered conservatively, would be sufficient to absorb the probable power output of the proposed hydro-electric plant at the site of the dam.

It is obvious that the power which can be generated from Boulder Dam is a valuable resource, the report said. "The income from storage can be reasonably increased and the capital investment reduced by the cost of the all-American canal together with a reduction for all or a part of the cost, properly chargeable to flood protection. It would be possible to amortize the remaining cost with the income from power."

INDICT TWO TROOPERS IN DUTCHES COUNTY

Dutchess county authorities announced Saturday that the grand jury has just returned indictments charging Fred Stark and George Mack, troopers of the state constabulary, with felonious assault in using alleged "third degree" methods on two men who had never been arrested.

It is alleged that the two troopers, who are attached to the White Plains barracks and belong to Troop K, abused and brutally assaulted Vincent D'Annunzio and Luigi Averza in Wingdale because the two men failed to give them information regarding an incendiary fire. The men allege when they told the two state policemen they knew nothing about the fire, one beat them with his fists and the other with a blackjack.

The troopers will plead to the indictment next Saturday at Poughkeepsie.

WITCH DOCTOR AND TWO BOYS CHARGED WITH MURDER

York, Pa., Dec. 3 (AP).—John Blymer, professed witch doctor, and two youths, Wilbert Hess, 18, and John, 14, will be arraigned Wednesday charged with the murder of Nelson D. Rehmyer, county authorities announced today.

Rehmyer, a reclusive farmer, was killed last Tuesday, according to statements made by the defendants, during a struggle when they attempted to cut a lock of hair from his head. The hair was to be buried deep in the ground as a charm to break a spell or "hex" alleged to have been cast over the Hess home.

Congress Opens Bureau Meetings With Plenty of Work to Be Done

Legislators Dispute Over Farm Relief and Tariff Programs—All Arguments Lack Authoritative Voice of President Coolidge and President-elect Hoover.

Washington, Dec. 3 (AP).—Congress assembled today with an eye on the White House, but with an attentive ear turned toward South Pacific waters, where Herbert Hoover is basking in South American sunshine, apparently outside of the circle of politics and patronage which usually closes in on an incoming President.

By all of the rules it was a Coolidge Congress, elected to serve with him, but nevertheless, the figure of Hoover, now on a good will trip to this nation's southern neighbors, bulked as a major factor in the determination of what should be done during the three months' session, and the way to do it.

It was a more or less bewildered Congress. There was plenty of work to be done, and that work was clearly outlined, but the campaign has brought in new issues which might make a lively session out of one which ordinarily would be very dull.

At the very outset there was a dispute over the questions of farm relief and the tariff. Some wanted farm relief right away, some wanted tariff revision—upward—immediately, and some wanted the two issues separated with farm relief now and tariff legislation later.

Democrats Have Little to Say

Chairman Hawley, of the House ways and means committee, undertook to settle the issue by calling his Republican colleagues into session to determine what should be done. The Democrats had little to say and but few expressions have been heard from them since the Hoover landslide.

As the Senate and House gathered, a farm relief bill was in the making, without the McNary-Haugen equalization fee which has proved so distasteful to President Coolidge. Efforts will be made to push it through. Nevertheless there is a formidable group on Capitol Hill which insists that President-elect Hoover has promised an extra session and this group is determined the matter should be left over for consideration during Mr. Hoover's administration.

No Hoover Spokesman

As far as known there has been no Hoover spokesman to convey to the members of the Senate and the House the views of the man chosen to succeed Calvin Coolidge at the White House, and all arguments have lacked the authoritative voice of both Mr. Coolidge and his former secretary of commerce.

On the face of it, the major task of the House was to pass the nine appropriation bills for the various departments of the government. It had during the last session shunted to the Senate such problems as the Boulder Dam Colorado River Development bill, the naval construction measure and others. Muscle Shoals, however, an annual problem, still remained to be solved as a result of President Coolidge's pocket-veto of the bill passed last spring.

In the Senate the Boulder Dam bill, in the hands of Senator Johnson of California, has preferred status. It faced a stormy voyage unless radically changed but had a fighting group behind it anxious to press it through the Senate and send it to President Coolidge for his signature.

Oddly enough the Kellogg treaty to outlaw war and the bill to construct fifteen new cruisers were twins awaiting a place on the Senate program. The cruiser bill, with recent utterances of President Coolidge to give it new momentum, was expected to be taken up soon after the session got down to the routine business of legislation. The Kellogg pact likewise was down for early consideration.

Bitterness Still to Be Shown

The extent of the bitterness engendered by the election and the campaign is still to be shown. On both sides of the Senate there are members who fought their party's Presidential candidate wholeheartedly, notably Senators Simmons of North Carolina, Hiffin of Alabama, Blaine of Wisconsin, and Norris of Nebraska. So far, at least on the surface, there has been no organized effort to discipline them.

Today's opening session, the lame duck session, as it is called because many of its members already have been defeated at the polls, was merely to get things under way. The program in both Houses called for formal opening roll calls, prayers, appointment of committees to inform the President that the House and Senate were ready to go ahead with business and adjournment out of respect for those who had died during the recess.

Tomorrow the Congress will receive President Coolidge's annual message outlining his views on the state of the union and his suggestion for its improvement and then the business of the session will be put on its way.

Bill to Increase Tariff on Grains

Gas Gives Warning

Gas is made to sound its own warning, should it escape from the mains, in an alarm device demonstrated by an Eastern inventor. In a recent test, an open bag of illuminating gas was held near the alarm, a boxlike contrivance, and in a few seconds an electric bell connected to the box rang the warning. — Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Fight T. B. With Christmas Seals

Friday marked the opening of the annual Christmas Seal Sale for Ulster county. Hundreds of letters containing Christmas seals were sent to residents of this city on that day.

Nearly every one who receives one of these appeals knows what the Ulster County Committee has done and is doing in the great work of eliminating tuberculosis. In order to make this work effective, funds must be provided, and it is only through the sale of these Christmas seals that cash can be raised for this purpose.

Tuberculosis is an infectious disease and in order to protect their homes, the citizens of the county should give their generous support and cooperation in stamping out the disease.

Christmas seals are a good investment. During the past 20 years, they have more than cut the tuberculosis death rate in half.

Every purchase of these seals means helping to make the munity of Ulster county more healthful and better places in which to live.

Mr. Williams as zone administrator will supervise the activities of the following tribes for the membership drive: Napanog, of Ellenville; Minnewakie, of Kingston; Wawarsing, of Kingston; Pokonoe, of St. Remy; Ogetian, of Esopus; Esoput, of Saugerties and Athabasca, of Catskill.

The tourist is often the forerunner of the homemaker and investor. He visits the country and sees with his own eyes the character of its people and resources, and if he later returns to settle or invest he is able to do both in a more satisfactory manner.

Bandits Get Five Airmail Pouches

St. Louis, Dec. 3 (AP).—Loot consisting of about $1,000,000 in bank checks intended for collection in Chicago and New York was obtained by two airmail bandits who Friday afternoon held up Harry C. Graham, a contract postal driver, and his wife, as they were on their way to deliver five pouches to the Lambert-St. Louis flying field. Postal authorities were attempting to determine the value of other mail stolen, including a number of registered letters and parcels.

The amount of checks was fixed by Olin M. Atterbury, deputy governor of the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank. He said the banks involved would be put to considerable trouble but would lose nothing through the theft.

The two bandits, neatly attired and wearing handkerchiefs for masks, crowded Graham's automobile to the curb and forced him to stop. One man leaped onto his truck and removed Graham's revolver and forced truck. The mail pouches, three intended for Chicago, one for Peoria and the other for Springfield, Ill., were transferred to the bandit auto, and they sped away.

The Grahams, forced into a cornfield, could give no description of the bandits.

Some of the postal inspectors investigating the robbery expressed the belief the holdup was accomplished by amateurs. The government does not accept shipments of cash by air mail. Postmaster A. J. Michener said the cash loss would be small because of this practice and confined to possibly a few dollars in currency inserted in letters.

This is for a very worthy cause and the committee in charge are very desirous of making this a success. A large crowd is expected. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

228 Fur Farms In New York State

Albany, Dec. 3.—The unusually high price of the pelts of fur-bearing animals has resulted in a decided increase in the breeding of these animals in this state.

In 1927 there were 73 new farms licensed to engage in raising protected fur bearers. Since then the total of such farms licensed in this state has risen to 228. In addition to licensed farms there are numerous other farms scattered throughout the state propagating foxes, and other animals not protected by the conservation law. To operate the latter class of farms no license is required.

The species of fur-bearing animals for which a license is required to possess, breed and kill for their fur, includes skunk, mink, muskrat, raccoon, beaver and sable. These animals when raised in captivity under a license may be killed during the seasons for their taking in the wild state. For purposes of propagation, education and exhibition they may be sold alive.

Much Foreign Game Imported

Albany, Dec. 3.—During the past year 268,653 pieces of game were imported into New York state from without the United States under licenses issued by the Conservation Department. Each piece of game so imported has to be plainly marked by a tag, the price of which is five cents, so that the state received from the sale of these tags $13,434.15.

The three varieties of game showing the heaviest importation were: South American quail, 120,235; partridge, 49,048; pheasants, 22,742. Other varieties which may be imported under the law, include pheasants of all species, Scotch grouse, Norwegian Ptarmigan, Norwegian white grouse, European black game, European black plover, European grey-legged partridge, European red-legged partridge, Egyptian quail, tinamous and birds of a species or subspecies not native to this state, the carcasses of European red deer, fallow deer and roe-buck.

Window shopping through the world

Looking around, comparing, deciding on colors and flavors and textures and designs—"shopping" for many of us is half the fun of buying things and having them. . . . Other people (more scientifically minded) always know exactly what they want, and where they want to buy it.

But before anyone definitely can say, "I like that—I'll take it" in order to spend money wisely, some "looking around" must be done.

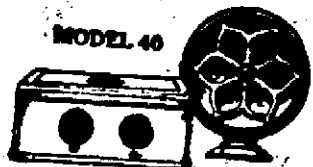

Looking around by reading the advertisements saves time and trouble and money. For advertisements are the shop windows of a world of manufacturers. You don't need to walk up Fifth avenue or past the corner drug store to see what So-and-So is offering in the way of silk stockings, or refrigerators, or tooth paste, or automobiles, or schools for young George, or vacations for the whole family.

The advertisements picture, describe, explain the merchandise and the new ideas that are displayed and talked about from Maine to California.

Read the advertisements because it pays YOU to do so.

THAT SUNDAY AFTERNOON BUGGY RIDE.

It was one way that the young swain of the Eighties showed his intentions. Clarence boasted that he could drive the fastest bug from Riley's Livery Stable with one hand. "Thanks for the buggy ride" was a sincere, straight-from-the-heart acknowledgment in those good old days.

Don't let an auto accident take your bank account for a "buggy ride". Even quiet residential streets like Washington Avenue or West Chestnut Street are fraught with danger if you are not properly covered with insurance.

THE WAY TO LEARN

THE game of bridge is much too deep for my mind to comprehend. I find it very hard to keep the lead, or even keep a friend. The other man who plays a game of bridge is much more than I am. I often wonder, "What's the use?" I just can't seem to get the thing.

THE WHY OF SUPERSTITIONS

By H. IRVING KING

SILVER AND NEW MOON

THE man who, when he first sees the new moon, turns a piece of silver over in his pocket "for luck" would probably be surprised if told that he was invoking the aid of the heathen goddess Diana. Yet that is what he is doing and the ceremony was performed by his predecessors on this earth long centuries ago in the days when the nations "chanted Diana great." Though there were many moon-goddesses before her, Diana was the ancient Italian goddess of the moon; particularly it would appear, or the moon in its crescent state as the Italian Diana—who must be distinguished from the Oriental, or Ephesian, Diana—is always represented with the crescent on her head. Now silver was the metal particularly dedicated to Diana—a natural relation from the character of the moon's rays—"the silver moon." It would appear that there was some connection, also, between the Ephesian or Asiatic Diana and the moon as—though represented as a woman with numerous mammas instead of as the virgin huntress with bow in hand, a crescent in her hair—silver was also the metal dedicated to her. But we inherit the Roman cult of Diana. The Roman soldier brought it into Britain and though it vanished there with the power of the "slowly fading mistress of the world" the connection between silver and the new moon changed into folk lore and remained to spread to "regions Caesar never saw." Therefore as the Roman legionary guarding the wall of Severus some seventeen centuries ago when he saw the new moon touched, if he could, a piece of silver; so some people today, when they see Diana's crescent in the sky, turn over a silver half dollar in their pockets.

Rocky Mountains

The name "Rocky Mountains" appears to be of Cree Indian origin. Long before the advent of the white man the Indians of the Canadian prairies, gazing at the glistening line of peaks stretched across the west, called them the "Shining Mountains." Legend St. Pierre in his journal, 1752, stated that among the Cree they were called "Assin-wait," that is, literally, "stone or rocky mountains." He translated the name into French—"Montagnes des Roches"—and by the English equivalent, "Rocky Mountains," they have since been known.

Not Always "Scotland"

"Caledonia" is the ancient name for North Britain. The name "Scotland" which became established in the Twelfth and Thirteenth centuries, originated in the Eleventh century when part of this land bore the name of "Scotia."

FRENCH SOCIETY HAS NO USE FOR COLONIES

Bordeaux, France, Dec. 3 (P).—France's colonial empire would be promptly sold to the United States or anybody else willing to buy it at a reasonable price if the inhabitants of southwestern France had their way. Public opinion is so resolutely hostile to French external expansion that a meeting of the union of economic associations of the southwest recently voted, almost unanimously, a resolution demanding that the importation of colonial produce be formally prohibited and that France take steps to get rid of her colonies.

VOGUE OF MAN'S SIZE HANDKERCHIEF A CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION.

New York.—The success of the man's size chiffon handkerchief for evening has been quickly followed by rather gaudy printed types of the same proportion and worn in the same manner.

They offer a Christmas gift suggestion and contribute a charming flutter of color to the dance floor knotted as they are meant to be on the hand resting on one's partner's shoulder. Man size handkerchiefs for sports, or even for afternoon wear are also offered in many bright colors and modernistic design, and often with rather enormous monograms at one corner. Lace is reserved for the evening and introduced in one or four corners but not often as a border.

A Dainty Frock For the Little Miss 6314. Side pleats from shoulders to hem and a shaped plastron below the round collar are outstanding features of this comfortable design. The sleeve pouches gracefully above a narrow cuff. Cotton prints are popular for a garment of this style. Pongee in a natural shade with pipings in white, or green is also attractive. Wool rep or wool crepe will be warm and also serviceable. The pleats may be tacked or stitched in tuck effect.

The pattern for this design is cut in 4 sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. To make the dress in a 6 year size will require 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material together with 1/2 yard of contrasting material with which to face collar, cuffs and plastron.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Aliens Admitted to United States

Analysis of Immigration for 1928
Made by Secretary of Labor in His Annual Report—States Outstanding Features.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis in his annual report for 1928 states that in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1928, a total of 269,631 aliens were admitted to the United States, as compared with a total of 239,091 for the previous year. During the fiscal year 274,356 aliens departed, as compared with 252,505 departures during 1927. Therefore, for the past fiscal year there was a net gain of 226,275 as compared with a net gain of 284,492 for the year 1927.

Of the 269,631 aliens admitted, 207,255 were immigrants or new comers for permanent residence in this country and 182,375 were either returning from a temporary trip abroad or coming here for a visit. Of the 274,356 aliens who departed from the United States during the past year, 190,227 were aliens who had been here for a short stay or who intended to return to the United States after visiting a foreign country. The remaining 84,129 departed without expressing an intention to return.

About three-fourths of the present-day immigrant aliens are in the prime of life, 16 to 44 years of age, which percentage runs about the same as in the previous fiscal year. Of the immigrants admitted during the year, 229,822 were from 16 to 44 years of age, 49,659 were under 16 years of age and the remaining 26,743 were 45 years of age or over. During the previous fiscal year the male immigrants outnumbered the female immigrants, 194,162 males and 141,912 females being admitted in that year.

Again, during the fiscal year 1928 the males outnumbered the females, 165,977 males and 141,278 females being admitted. However, a number of countries sent more females than males. For instance, Greece sent 410 males and 1,918 females and Italy sent 6,075 males and 11,652 females. Statistics show that most of the countries sending an excess of females over males are located in southern Europe where the quotas are small. The excessive females over males is due largely to the fact that many of these females are wives of American citizens and as such are exempt from the quota provisions of the immigration act of 1924.

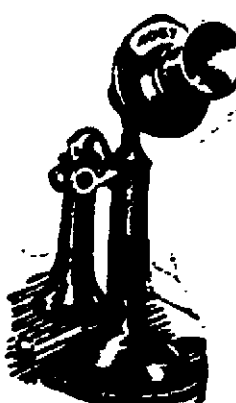

As in the previous fiscal year, countries from the Western Hemisphere furnished almost half the immigrants admitted, due to the fact that quota restrictions do not apply to most countries in this hemisphere. Immigrants to the number of 73,154 were admitted from Canada and 59,916 from Mexico. These two figures constitute 43 per cent of the total number of immigrants for the year. Europe sent 158,513 immigrants during this year. Germany leading with 45,778, being followed by the Irish Free State with 24,544 and Great Britain with 19,958. Italy sent 17,728 and the combined Scandinavian countries (Denmark, Norway and Sweden) 16,184.

For 17 days a gang of men have been getting the section mapped out with Mr. Hallinan. Many men will soon be at work at Binnewater. Saturday evening those present were Ex-Mayor Crane, chairman of a committee to get Mr. Williams acquainted with Kingston; John Cook, who has charge of the Binnewater headquarters at the present time; Mr. Hallinan, who is surveying the property; George Hall, president of the Hudson Counties Estates; Willett L. Bennett, representing Mr. Williams in purchasing land; Mr. Olson, a salesman at Teaneck, N. J.; Mr. Williams and Miss Helen Williams and others. BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritation, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. A HEALTHFUL SPINE OVERCOMES HEADACHES

The victim of nervous headaches is usually the victim of a poor stomach or an inactive liver. If the liver is inactive, it disorders the stomach. If the stomach is the center of weakness, the headaches will be overcome only when the weakness of the stomach is corrected.

The victim of nervous headaches may enjoy days of temporary relief, but as time runs on the headaches come back more and more often, because drugs to deaden the headache can in no way overcome their basic cause.

As just stated, there is a cause for your headache! A Chiropractic examination will determine for you just why you have been having them, and will then proceed in a scientific manner, to bring back to normal the disturbing conditions.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Reception was good Sunday and fair at night, except for fading during part of the Atwater Kent program.

Saturday night reception was exceptionally good, especially from southern stations.

Our own ever try operating two receiving sets at the same time, one using a rather shrill horn and the other one of those "back from the tomb" deep voiced loud speakers? Life holds a lot in store for you if you've never tried this.

MODENA.
Modena, Dec. 3.—There were many guests in town during Thanksgiving holidays, while several local people spent the day with friends and relatives elsewhere.

The Plattekill Grangers will give a minstrel show in the Grange Hall, Tuesday evening, December 11, entitled "Old Virginia Darktown Choir." The show will consist of two one-act plays "Careless Cupid" and "In Old Virginia" with the usual singing, dancing, jokes and specialties. The Wallkill High School Orchestra will provide music for the minstrels and for dancing after the entertainment. Tickets on sale by committee in charge.

Local schools were closed Wednesday, giving students a brief vacation during holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ayres of Wallkill, Miss Irene Hyatt and Lester Wager were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Jenkins and son, Philip, Thanksgiving Day.

Homer Patridge of Schenectady visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patridge Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wager and Miss Glennie Wager spent Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ransel J. Wager at Poughkeepsie.

Miss Irene Hyatt has secured a position at Poughkeepsie and will assume her duties there next week. The clay pigeon shooting match under supervision of Plattekill Rod and Gun Club was well attended Thursday.

News From the World on Wheels

A Pontiac Six, new in practically everything but the name, shortly will appear on the market. A bigger, smarter, more powerful and more luxurious Pontiac, bringing big car features within the price range of the small six, is promised by the Oakland Company. This announcement comes near the close of the most successful year in the company's history with an estimated total output for 1928 of close to 270,000 units, forty per cent above 1927.

In preparation for 1929, extensive building projects under way for some time past now are practically completed, and will give the Oakland-Pontiac plant a capacity next year in excess of 350,000 cars. Production of parts for the new car is now under way at the company plant, said to be the most modern and best equipped in the industry.

The new Pontiac Six will be built almost entirely in factories owned by the Oakland Motor Car Company and the Fisher body plant at Pontiac, because the opening of new production units will enable Oakland in 1929 to build parts formerly manufactured elsewhere.

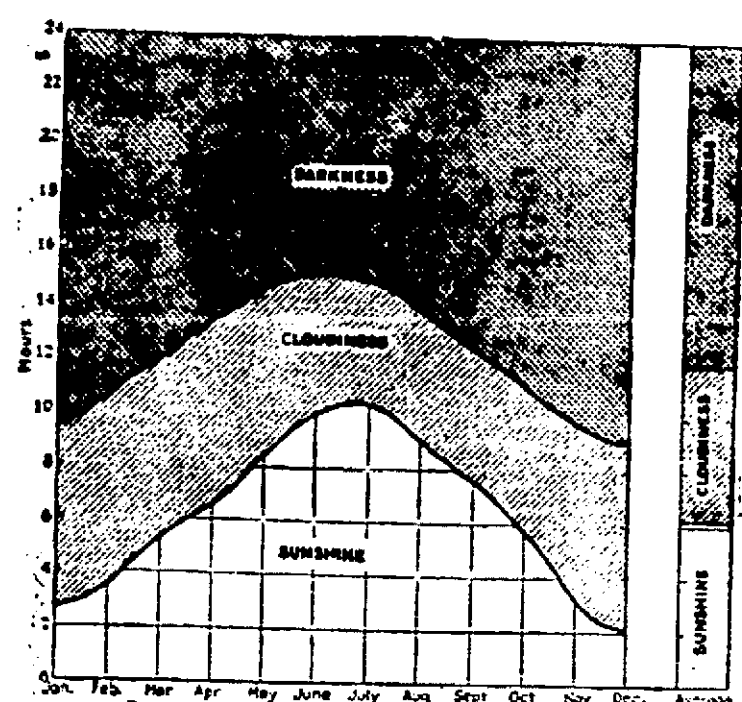

From present indications, more motor trucks will be made and sold in 1928 than during any previous year. For the first 10 months 157,000 motor trucks have been produced by all makers than for the same period last year—Stewarts gains 55 per cent ahead of the field.

Stewarts have enjoyed a healthy increase for the past number of years. 1925 was 17 per cent over 1924, 1926 was 43.7 per cent over 1925, 1927 was 43.7 per cent over 1926, 1928 was 43.7 per cent over 1927.

A Studebaker Big Six touring car, purchased in 1923 as a used car and which has been in state service for five years, was recently received by the John K. Leander Company, Studebaker-Erskine distributors at Portland, Ore., as part payment on a new Studebaker President Eight. It had been driven over 250,000 miles. The owner was W. R. Moore of the Bend-Redmond-Primette Stage Company, who operates a stage line between these points and Portland. The company also owns a 15-passenger Studebaker bus which has been driven 115,000 miles.

When daylight fails

This chart shows how little actual daylight we have over a considerable period of the year.

Any industrial plant, no matter how fortunately located with regard to daylight, must make adequate provision for artificial lighting. There are cloudy days, days of storm, and the short days of winter. In all these instances daylight fails. There is a slowing up of production, spoilage is increased, the accident rate rises, eye strain produces nervousness and fatigue, and the general morale is lowered. Artificial lighting is necessary, but unless the lighting installation is carefully planned and laid out to meet the particular illumination requirements, the effect produced is almost as bad as no artificial lighting system at all.

There should be no bare or improperly shielded lamps; no light sources in the direct line of the workers' vision; workmen should not stand in their own light; there should be no harsh shadows; illumination should be equally distributed; and all lighting fixtures should be kept clean and in good condition.

Our lighting representatives, who are making continual studies in the advancement of the art of industrial illumination, will be glad to make a survey of your own conditions and submit recommendations for improving your lighting.

Now Enjoys His Meals Without the Fear of Severe Distress After

Indigestion, Gas in Stomach, Kidney Disorders and Rheumatism Relieved By Nu-Erb, Says Local Man

Never a day passes now, but that someone is telling the Nu-Erb man at McBride's Drug Store, 212 Wall street, of the wonderful good to be obtained through the use of this great health preparation. Among the most recent is Mr. Simon Chambers, 64 East Pierpont street, Kingston, N. Y., who is a well-known employee of Dwyer Bros., Shipbuilders.

"My stomach was in such bad shape that I suffered from indigestion after every meal," said Mr. Chambers. "Gas formed in large quantities and caused severe distress and pain, so that I was afraid to eat. My kidneys were very weak, causing a dull aching pain across my back, rheumatism settled in my joints and muscles causing them to become stiff, sore and swollen."

"I tried lots of different medicines, but nothing ever helped me to speak of until I started taking Nu-Erb a short time ago. This medicine seemed to go right to the spot that was causing my distress and now I can eat about anything I want without fearing any distress or pain in my stomach after. My kidneys too are apparently in fine shape. The pain has left my back and I am no longer troubled with rheumatism. I gladly recommend this medicine to others and am convinced that for troubles such as mine there has never been anything like it."

Dr. French's Nu-Erb, the herbal medicine that did so much for this man is made from the pure liquid extracts of twelve different herbs, roots, barks and leaves, which act on the vital organs of the human body. It tones and regulates the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels and drives poisons from the system. It is so often the cause of the most distressing rheumatism and neuritis. Nu-Erb is pleasant to take and the results are quickly felt.

McBride's Drug Store, 212 Wall Street is headquarters in Kingston for Dr. French's Nu-Erb. Go see the Nu-Erb man now feeling his health restored there and let him explain to you the merits of this master medicine.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a yellow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dark eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle laxatives yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c.

Local Elks Hold Memorial Service

The lodge room of Kingston Lodge, No. 550, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, on Fair street, was well filled Sunday afternoon, the occasion being the annual memorial service for those members who died during the year. There were 14 of them, being Christopher A. Murray, George W. Lament, Robert A. Parsons, David A. Freer, St. Arthur Vincent, Cornelius N. Riseley, C. Eason, Hartshorn, C. Augustus Mulford, Frank Byer, Joseph J. Curcio, Philip Schantz, Edwin L. Oakes, Dr. John G. O'Leary, Frank J. Corsiglia.

The services were conducted by the officers, of whom George H. Burr is exalted ruler, assisted by the Mendelssohn Club. The opening exercises were ritualistic, the invocation being by Brother Rev. Thomas Braithwaite, chaplain of the lodge, who followed the opening by Exalted Ruler Burr. The Mendelssohn Club then sang, "Ashes of Roses". The sacred session followed and as Secretary Charles J. Mullen read the names or roll call of the dead brothers, the members of the lodge each deposited his tribute upon the altar symbolic of the virtues of the departed brothers.

The eulogy was delivered by Bernard A. Katz of Albany Lodge, No. 49, a deputy attorney general. In the absence of Past Exalted Ruler Hon. Isadore Bookstein of Albany who, by reason of death in his family, was unable to come and make the address at the Lodge of Sorrow, as scheduled. Following the address by Mr. Katz, "The Lost Chord" was sung by the Mendelssohn Club, the closing ode was rendered by the lodge and friends, and Chaplain Braithwaite pronounced the benediction.

OLD CLOTHES DANCE AT MEMORIAL BUILDING

American Legion Memorial Building on West O'Reilly street is expected to be crowded with members of Kingston Post and their friends tonight for the old clothes dance under the supervision of Jerry Martin, post activities chairman.

Martin, who has devoted much time toward making the old clothes dance an enjoyable event, has a number of surprises for those who attend and promises a good time to all. Many have signified their intention of going to the dance, which likely will turn out to be one of the most successful events ever held by Kingston Post.

All who go to the dance are requested to wear antique clothes, the kind that were the rage a generation or two back. It is anticipated that there will be some very pretty as well as comical outfits at the dance. The hall has been decorated to harmonize with the event.

Character is what you are, reputation is what the neighbors say you are.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Dec. 2 (P)—Heavy liquidation for both accounts brought about a sharp reaction in prices in today's stock market. Net losses of 1 to 4 points were distributed over a broad list of rails and industrials, with a score or more of the high-priced issues down 5 to nearly 15 points. Trading showed a further contraction in volume.

Call money renewed at 8 per cent and advanced to 9 as banks called $35,000,000 in loans because of the necessity of strengthening their reserve positions. Banks had a relatively small supply of funds available, making 10 per cent call money again a likely prospect.

There was nothing in week end news developments to influence the selling movement. However, the sharp break in Canadian Marconi on the New York Curb, stiff money rates and the indications of another increase in stock exchange membership loans led to a widespread liquidation of speculative accounts. Many traders also were scared at the rapid manner in which prices of some of the recent favorites melted away under pressure.

Greene Cananea broke 12 points on the first sale. Radio ran off 10 1/2 points before mid-day, but quickly recovered its loss. Canadian Pacific dropped 9 1/2 points and Keith-Albee common and preferred, Woolworth, General Electric, Union Carbide, Victor Talking Machine, Montgomery Ward, Cerro de Pasco Copper, Yellow truck and Packard Motors sold down 4 to nearly 8 points.

Only a few issues moved against the general trend. Warner Bros. Pictures A soared nearly 10 points to 128 and Standard Milling moved up 4 to 128, both new high records.

While few commission houses recommended short sales at this stage of the market, most of them continued to urge a cautious policy on the long side because of the market's seemingly top-heavy speculative position. Recent tightening of margin requirements also has frightened some traders out of the market, although accounts generally are reported by exchange members to be in a strong position.

Yellow Jackets Outclass West Point Service Club

Locals Score Three Touchdowns and Safety While Holding Soldier Eleven Scoreless—Hoffman Again Makes Long Run For Touchdown—Beany Unable to Gain Through Kingston's Strong Line.

The West Point Service Club football team, that came to Kingston to avenge a 14-0 defeat landed them by the Yellow Jackets several weeks ago, were given another setback by the local gridder who blanked the soldiers, 21-0, at the Kingston Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon.

It was a big day for the Yellow Jackets. They scored in every quarter of the game while they held the highly reputed Service Club to zero. Every cracker, for the Yellow Jackets were all home boys, did his best in Sunday's battle. The backfield was working on high gear for Coach Preston, who eagerly watched from the sideline the sterling performance of Winter, Colvin, Hoffman and Cirone. Players who relieved them, Miliken and Leverett, also came through with good work.

The line was working in ship-shape order. Jimmy Cassidy at center was the bane of the soldiers. This scrappy little "Irish" asserted himself by breaking up several forward passes for the West Pointers as well as keeping the Service Men from breaking through the line. Scheff and Rice as usual were in the game for all they were worth. Scheff scored Kingston's first touchdown and Rice's interference and tackling came in for a great deal of favorable remarks. Shultz, Howard, Terwilliger and Kennedy proved a veritable stone wall for the soldiers to buck and were in the game every minute. Eric and Bob Winkley, two relief linemen, gave the soldiers plenty to worry about, while Smith and Maroon played well for the short time they were in the game.

Many fans were heard to remark that the tilt was of regular collegiate calibre. This belief became more pronounced at the end of the contest when both teams massed and gave a cheer for their opponents. The Service Club, a regular bunch, inaugurated the yell by giving the Yellow Jackets a yell. The local boys surely appreciated the good sportsmanship manifested by the soldiers and retaliated with a boisterous cheer for the West Pointers, who failed to score even though they had Clarence Beany of the Artillery to depend upon and Captain Joe McGrath, star quarterback of the team played his prettiest.

Locals Score in First Quarter.
Stanley Colvin received Captain Joe McGrath's kickoff near the Yellow Jackets' 10 yard line and was not stopped until he had reached his 29 yard mark. He and Winter marched the oval to the 35 yard line, where a penalty of five yards was inflicted on the Jackets for off-sides. Then Joe Hoffman got loose and tore off a gain of 20 yards for a first down. Alternations by Winter and Cirone put the leather on the West Pointers' 45 yarder, where the locals tried the forward passing game. Their efforts worked perfectly for Vince Rice received the toss in a neat manner on the soldiers' 28 yard line. After two line plays, one of which was not so successful and resulted in a slight loss, Winter heaved the leather into the arms of Harry Scheff, who showed the soldiers some fine sprinting for about 20 yards and scored the first touchdown of the afternoon. The Yellow Jackets failed to make the after-touchdown point.

The soldiers kicked off. Winters got the boot and tore off about 15 yards. Hoffman and Cirone added to the progress of the ball by line plunges, but an attempt to complete a forward pass failed. Shultz punted the leather from his own 33 yard line to the West Pointers' 45 mark. Beany grabbed it and lunged for approximately 10 yards, but could do nothing coming out of the line and was tackled, chief of punt. Short work harbor oval from the he Tracy Lt to his own 25 yard line. Adirondack quarter.

Recuperate him for the West Point and at during the session and they realized it. They never got their hands on the ball from the kick until after the Yellow Jackets scored their first touchdown, which came after the game had been in progress but about five minutes.

Jackets Score Again in Second.
The second quarter started with the ball on Kingston's 25 yard line from where Shultz punted it to his opponents' 49 stripe. The West Pointers did not gain after receiving the ball and on the play that followed lost about five yards on a fumble. Then Beany punted to Kingston's 35 yard line. Winters got his hands on the melon and galloped up the turf for ten yards. Hoffman and Cirone came in for their share of ground gaining by line bucks and then Winter hurled a forward pass to Scheff who brought the ball to West Point's 35 yard line. This made a first down for the Yellow Jackets, their only one made during the quarter. Then the locals suffered a five yard penalty for off-sides. Colvin gained the ground lost when he took the ball on the play that followed. Winter failed to gain on an attempt to skirt an end so Shultz punted. The ball booted by his pet toe landed in Beany's arms and he advanced it 10 yards. As the soldiers were deep in their own territory they came out of the huddle with the idea of punting.

Their decision proved costly to the West Pointers and brought R. McGraw, head linesman—Bucholtz, Referee—Olson. Umpire—Hass-

Winkley. Yellow Jacket tackle out in the linelight. The soldiers' center tossed the ball to Beany, who applied his mighty "hood" to the leather in vain. Winkley got through the West Point line and blocked the boot. The ball rolled back of the war men's goat but before Beany, who raced with the Yellow Jacket boot-blocker for its possession, could get out of the zone with the leather he was tackled by Winkley and Kingston got two points more by virtue of a safety. This made the tally 8-0 in the Yellow Jackets' favor. The quarter was about half over. The ball was brought to the West Point 29 yard line from where Joe McGrath, soldier quarterback, booted to Kingston's 49 stripe. Several attempts to break through the down river men's line required Shultz to punt. The West Point team managed to work the ball to Kingston's 45 yard line where a forward pass was tried. The throw was a bad one for the soldiers for Stanley Colvin got hold of the oval and dodged through the opposing interference for about five yards. The army got the ball back when Miliken fumbled and Beany fell on the melon. It was too late for the soldiers to accomplish anything however, as the timer's pistol ended the half at this point.

The soldiers kicked off to start the second half. Joe Hoffman received the ball on his 10 yard line and made about 18 yards for his team. The Jackets made their 36 yarder then punted. Beany got the ball and made considerable progress. The soldiers got a five yard penalty for incomplete forward passes which were muffed up by Jim Cassidy, and then punted. Winter made a fair catch and two successive line plays brought the pigskin to Kingston's 35 yard marker. The next play was a neat forward throw by Winter and received by Scheff on his own 45 yard line. It was a first down for Kingston, the lone one of the quarter. Winter again tried his hand at passing and this time his action resulted in a greater gain than the first time. Joe Hoffman was on the receiving end and ran from the soldiers' 45 yard line down the turf for another touchdown, the Yellow Jackets' second of the day. His run was a neat one but much credit goes to Vince Rice and Stanley Colvin, veteran gridder, for the interference they gave him. Rice in a spectacular manner dumped several West Pointers in Hoffman's path, while running nip and tuck with Joe. He got the last man on the 200 yard line and the soldier knew he was taken out. Colvin's work was accomplished in the vicinity of the 40 yard line near where Hoffman caught the ball. The Yellow Jackets got the benefit of the after-touchdown in this quarter as Stanley Colvin skirted left end and crossed the goal line after making a fake attempt to throw a forward pass. This brought the score up to 15 for the Yellow Jackets while the West Point Service Club still had its goose egg.

Scoring ended for the quarter, which was about half over when Kingston's touchdown was registered. In the period that followed two touchdowns were accounted for. Beany twice booted the ball so that it went behind the goal line, which required that it be put into play in possession of the Yellow Jackets on their own 20 yard line. The Service Club saw little of the ball for the remainder of the quarter although it was out of Kingston's territory but once.

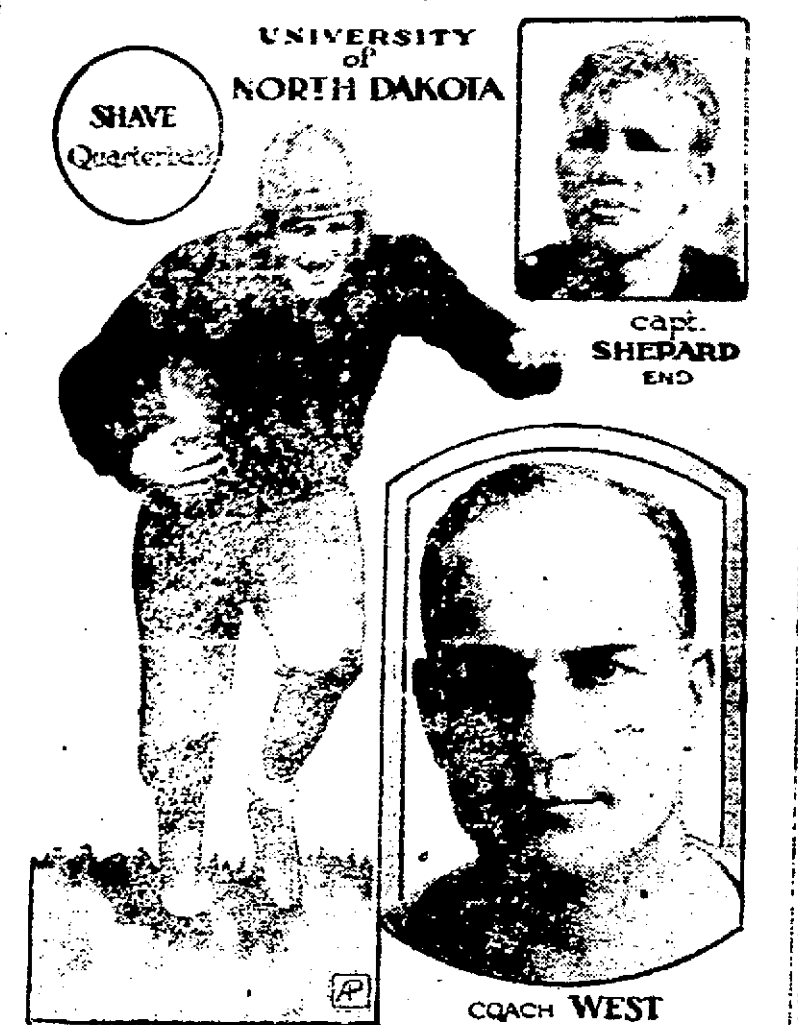

The Yellow Jackets started the fourth quarter with the ball in their possession on their own 25 yard line. Hoffman and Winter worked the leather to the 32 yarder where Shultz punted to the Service team's 40. Beany could not be stopped until he had crossed the mid-field line but his gain did the soldiers little good. The following play was a forward pass which was intercepted by Shultz, who penetrated the West Point team and reached their 45 yard line. Eddie Leverett plowed the line for a four-yard gain and another line buck brought the Yellow Jackets to the 40 yard line. Shultz punted. Beany received the ball but fumbled and Rice fell on the sphere near the soldiers' five yard line. In two or three line plays Johnny Cirone crashed his way over the goal line for the last touchdown of the day. This brought the score to the final standing. Yellow Jackets 21, Service 0.

Chandlers Beat Springfield Team

Thrills! plenty of thrills were had at the basketball game Saturday night between the Chandlers and the Springfield Y. M. C. A. at the local Y court. The battle was nip and tuck throughout the first three quarters but in the final session the Chandlers broke loose. When the game ended the score was Chandlers 21, Springfield 27.

The score was tied five times and broken three times in the first half of the game. The Chandlers took the lead in the early part of the first quarter but when the period ended the tally was 5-5. The game went on in this fashion throughout the second and third quarters. At half time the score was 9 all.

About 200 fans taxed the balcony about the Y. M. C. A. court to cheer their favorites to victory. The Chandlers would score and this seemed to help the locals on when it came to the pinches. The Chandlers were handicapped in size, weight and basketball experience, but when it came to speed, the local five was like the wing footed Hermes while the Springfield squad was like the old experienced Cyclops giants.

After much passwork on the part of both teams, Niles sunk a two point shot for the Chandlers. It wasn't long before "dead" shot Hoag of the Springfield team also found the hoop from scrimmage for a score, and this was the first time that the score was tied. Oppenheimer, the Springfield giant center, then made his free try good which put them in the lead 3-2. Then Niles was fouled and making his shot good again tied the score 3-3. Soon after this the quarter ended and the score remained unchanged.

The second quarter saw about the same things but this time the Springfield team scored first. Jais made one from the side of the court and Krumm likewise for the Chandlers. The score again was tied, 5-5. Oppenheimer found the hoop from the foul line which again put them one point in the lead, 6-5. Niles again tied things up when he made a shot from the 15-foot line. Dulin also made a foul which broke the tie and Merritt then sunk a field, which gave the Chandlers the biggest lead that they had yet gotten upon their opponents, 9-6. Oppenheimer then shot the ball from the center of the floor and the leather dropped in the basket. This shot was followed by a foul made by Shea as the whistle blew for the half to end, the score being deadlocked at 9 points.

The Second Period.
In the first few minutes of the second half Kennedy broke the tie by shooting a foul and Fox then scored twice from scrimmage. The score now was 14-9. Hoag then made a long shot from the center of the court and Shea made a foul. In succession, Hoag again scored and after this little rally by the Springfield team, Fox dropped one from the side of the floor, making the score 17-15 as the visitors called time out. After time out, it wasn't long before Shea again sunk a long one, tying the score. Fox scored and broke the deadlock and when the whistle blew which ended the third quarter, the Chandlers held the score by two points, 19-17. This was the first time at the end of a quarter that the score was not tied.

Chandlers Rally.
In the early part of the last quarter the score still acted the same way as it had in previous periods. Hoag tied the score again by making a field goal. Merritt then came through with a field and a foul, and from then on the Chandlers scored them fast. Niles, Merritt and Krumm were the main scorers of this rally. Springfield again called time out and the score was now 30 to 21. After their time out the visitors began to score heavily adding six points to their score in a minute and a half, which they had to play before the final whistle. The Chandlers made two fields and this ended up the tallies for the game. The whistle blew and the final score was Chandlers, 34, Springfield, 27.

Every Big Ten Team Defeated.
Every eleven in the big ten met at least one defeat during the season, so keen was the competition. Oppenheimer, a 33 to 13 victory over Georgetown, and Boston College with a 19-0 triumph over its old rival, Holy Cross.

1928 College Football Closes With Many Records

Record-Smashing Attendance and Gate Receipts And Extraordinary Succession of Upsets—Pacific Coast and South Take Major Share of Season's Laurels—Golden West Has Double Armlock on Intersectional Glory.

New York, Dec. 3 (AP)—Except for a few sparkling and decisive tests in the south and far west, the 1928 college football season has closed an unprecedented and meteoric course along the chalk-marked battlefields. Its chief developments have included record-smashing attendance and gate receipts for the fifth straight year, an extraordinary succession of upsets featuring the downfall of champions and teams rarely out of the top flight—in short, a bewildering whirl climaxing by three crushing triumphs for the far west over legions east of the Mississippi.

From the spectacular viewpoint, the early season crowd of 122,000 that witnessed the Navy-Notre Dame game in Chicago was the high spot, smashing all football records. New marks in attendance also were set in the east and southwest, while every other section contributed to an outpouring over the country from September to December approximating 25,000,000 to 30,000,000.

From the angle of sheer playing accomplishments, representatives of the Pacific coast and the south take the major share of the season's laurels, a situation that will find its appropriate climax in the New Year's Day engagement between two of the foremost teams of these areas, California and Georgia Tech, in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

The golden west has a double armlock and half Nelson on intersectional glory as a result of the sensational victories of Stanford over the Army, Oregon State over New York University, and Southern California over Notre Dame within a three day period. Whatever claims the east hoped to stake in the scramble for national title honors were wiped out by the crushing setbacks administered to the Army and N. Y. U. on the same gridiron by teams that came 3,000 miles like twin tornadoes to rip up everything in sight.

Two of the foremost teams of the year, Georgia Tech and Florida, lead the south's drive for national recognition with fine records of achievement against all opposition. Neither has been beaten nor tied, but each has one more sectional obstacle to hurdle this week, with Tech playing Georgia at Atlanta, and Florida meeting another undefeated foe, Tennessee, at Knoxville.

No team from any area has an unchallenged claim to national champion heights in a year that has seen so many sudden reversals, so many unexpected turns and days where otherwise brilliant outfits met misfortune.

Boston Neither Beaten Nor Tied.
So far as the records of major colleges go, only four can boast spotless slates. Boston College, the only team neither beaten nor tied in the East, and Detroit, enjoying the same distinction in the middle West, share this honor with the Southern pair, Florida and Georgia Tech.

Boston College and Detroit both have finished fine seasons. Their records stand without the chance of blemish now. Each wound up its campaign in a brilliant style Saturday, Detroit with a 43 to 13 victory over Georgetown, and Boston College with a 19-0 triumph over its old rival, Holy Cross.

But there are others to consider. Southern California, Utah and Tennessee have been tied but are unbeaten. California has bowed to no college foe although tied by Stanford and Southern California. Stanford lost to Southern California, but gave an exhibition of attacking power Saturday against the Army that has not been surpassed this season in big league competition.

It is a strange if not unprecedented season when such ordinarily mighty machines as Yale, Michigan and Notre Dame each suffer the humiliation of four defeats. Yet they were only the main victims in the surge that at some time or another upset nearly every major team.

ern record where Yale and Pittsburgh shared the 1927 leadership.
Illinois, in a race decided on the last day, successfully defended the big ten championship. Georgia Tech appears likely to stay at the top of the southern conference, even if forced to share the leadership with Florida or perhaps Tennessee. All three of these southern teams are still in the running.

Radio Falls to Hurt Attendance.
The spread of radio hookups for big games throughout the country failed to cut down attendance. Besides the record-breaking out-pouring of 122,000 at Soldier Field on October 13 for the Navy-Notre Dame game, the east reached new high marks with crowds of 86,000 filling the Yankee Stadium in New York for each of the Army's battles with Notre Dame and Stanford. Throgs of close to 80,000 or more witnessed spectacles at Ohio State and Michigan while 99,000 saw the Stanford-California game at Berkeley and 80,000 the Southern California-Notre Dame contest at Los Angeles. In the southwest, a new record was set by the crowd of 45,000 for the game in which Texas clinched the sectional title by defeating Texas Aggies.

Sunday School League Results
The Sunday School League teams finished their first round of games
Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. court. St. John's beat Albany Avenue, 21 to 18, and the Congregationalists defeated the Comforters 38-32.
These were two of the hardest fought games that have been played in the School League.

The St. John's and Albany Avenue game was close throughout the first quarter but in the second session, the St. John's rolled up a five point lead on their opponents, the score being 7 to 12 at half time. From then on the St. John's team held the lead and at no time did their opponents threaten to take the upper hand.

Clarke scored good for the Albany Avenue quintet through the entire game, having 15 marks to his credit when the game ended. Townsend scored best for the St. John's five with 12 points beside his name.

The second tilt saw the Congregationalists play the best brand of basketball to beat the Comforters. In the first quarter the score was close but in the second period the Congregationalists got the upper hand by a safe margin, the score being 15 to 9 at half time.

It was throughout the second half that the Comforters threatened their opponents. In the early part of the second half the Comforters wasted no time in gathering their points, for soon they were within a point of their opponents' lead and the game continued to be played in this way till the last whistle, which gave the Congregationalists victory, 38 to 33.

Aviators Thrill Big Crowds Here

The management of the Kingston Airways flying field on Sunday played host to the largest gathering of aviation fans that was ever at the field. Not only Sunday but Saturday also there was a large crowd at the field watching the entertainment.

There were a number of the country's best known pilots at the field taking passengers, stunting and in general showing what they knew of aviation. The crowd enjoyed their exhibition and showed its appreciation of their work.

The greatest thrill came when Art Foster, a young red head, who learned his flying from Clarence Chamberlain, performed his famed parachute jump. Foster left the plane while at an altitude of approximately 3,000 feet and dropped about 1,500 feet before he opened the chute. It was by far the most daring bit of work that has ever been seen in Kingston or anywhere in this vicinity. The crowd showed its appreciation for Foster, especially on Saturday when they gave three cheers for him as he landed, but their enthusiasm did not reach into their pockets as was shown when some of Foster's fellow pilots passed the hat to help defray his expenses of coming here. In fact it was, in comparison with the crowd, almost a minus quantity.

Eric Lindengren also performed in his usual pleasing manner to the fans. He jumped from a lofty altitude and "pulled" himself in with the chute so that he landed almost on the field.

There were a large number of autos at the field and lining the road in front and when they finally started to move there was quite a traffic jam, and one or two of the autos received slight dents in the fenders but it was unavoidable as the driving was very difficult.

Card of Thanks.
I desire to extend my sincere thanks to all relatives, neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness during the recent illness and death of my wife, Anna I. Lauren, also to Kingston Chapter, No. 155, O. E. S., Mystic Court, No. 62 Order of the Amaranth and Judea Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, and for the beautiful floral tributes.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)
New York—Irving Berlin's son is to be Irving, Jr. "His mother insisted upon calling him Irving," the song writer said, "and I never won an argument with her yet."

Lima, Peru—A bridge of San Luis Rey, in real life. Three peasants going to church across the river. Canoe bridge were swept away in the raging torrent when the bridge collapsed. One was drowned.

Sofia—King Boris, the lowest-paid monarch in the world, has been granted a raise of 50 per cent. He now makes $12,000 a year, one-tenth of the boy King Michael's salary.

Berlin—A new "rocket car" designed for speed, got up to 20 miles an hour before one side of the machine was blown off.

Haverstraw, N. Y.—If burglars came a third time to a public garage here they'll run into two bears. One of them weighs 600 pounds and is six feet tall. They hate strangers.

Geneva—The gambling lid is off again in Switzerland's tourist resorts. The people have voted favorably on a referendum to restore gambling tables abolished several years ago.

Baltimore—John Donnell Smith, botanist, Yale's oldest alumnus, is dead at the age of 99. He was graduated at 15 and never went back to visit his Alma Mater. He was a captain in the Confederate Army.

Pompeii—A marble statue of Apollo, a bronze vase and other ancient objects of art have been discovered in excavations on the site of the ancient city of Pompeii.

New York—A giant monopoly in marine arenicolous annelids is busted. Counsel for the successful trust-busters, whose clients, residents of Canarsie, were fined $5 for pursuing the industry on the sands of Port Washington, said the turnover of the industry was $1,000,000 a year. The fine was under a town ordinance, barring non-residents. Marine arenicolous annelids are sand worms which sell for three cents apiece to fishermen.

Montreal—What is the fastest and finest sport ever seen by Don Alton, so, Infante de Spain? Bull fighting? No, hockey.

Pittsburgh—The Rev. Dr. R. H. Martin thinks Washington sets a bad example for the rest of the nation and the world. There are few places, he told the National Reform Association, where so little regard is shown for the Sabbath. He said many stores are open Sundays, with much unnecessary labor and business.
